FNB Media Release

FNB customers, employees and partners encouraged to donate directly to National Solidarity Fund

FNB has expressed its gratitude to employees, customers and partners for donating funds as well as eBucks to the FNB bank account that was created to support the National Solidarity Fund.

The Bank is pleased to confirm that in excess of R1.6 million worth of contributions was collected through the FNB Solidarity Fund account and handed over to the National Solidarity Fund.

As of 1 June 2020, customers and staff who wish to continue supporting the efforts can only donate directly to the National Solidarity Fund. Donations to the National Solidarity Funds must be made to the following banking details:

- Account Name: Solidarity Fund
- Recipient Name: Solidarity Fund
- Account number: 023070021
- Branch number: 051001 / Standard Bank South Africa
- Account Type: Current/Cheque Account

The National Solidarity Fund is an umbrella platform to enable all South Africa to contribute to the fight against COVID-19. It is an independently registered and governed public benefit company that acts as a rapid response vehicle in the fight against COVID-19 by mobilising and coordinating the resources and efforts of all South Africans to aid efforts to curb the spread of COVID-19.

FNB wishes to once again applaud customers, staff and partners for their valued contributions to support COVID-19 efforts. The Bank encourages all its stakeholders to continue supporting efforts to contain the impact of COVID-19 in South Africa.
